SEDALIA, MISSOURI, MONDAY EVENING, AUGUST 5, 1907 PART ONE

VOL. 1. NO. 209 PRICE FIVE CENTS

WILL NOT "CELEBRATE"

GERMAN AMERICAN DAY IN SEDALIA THING OF THE PAST FOR THE PRESENT.

THE GERMAN DAY COMMITTEE MET

Gov. Folk's Lid Would Interfere With the Usual Festivities—Appeal for a Modification of the Law.

At the second meeting of the German day committee, held Sunday, August 4th, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Whereas, the German-American citizens of Sedalia and vicinity have for the past eighteen years celebrated their anniversary, commonly called German day, in strict accordance with the laws of Missouri and the ordinances of the city of Sedalia; and furthermore as these celebrations have always been conducted in an orderly and harmonious manner, and have been participated in by practically the entire people, regardless of nationality; and

Whereas, under the laws passed by the last legislature at Jefferson City in special session, such a celebration will be curtailed and practically made impossible, therefore, by the German-American citizens, in meeting assembled, August 4th, 1907, he it

Resolved, That we, as law-abiding citizens, submit to the changed conditions and refrain from any elaborate public demonstration or celebration of our traditional annual German day in the year A. D. 1907, until such a time as we can do so without fear of being regarded as law breakers; further be it

Resolved, That we hereby appeal to all good citizens to exercise their constitutional rights and privileges to the end of having such laws which arrogate our guaranteed liberties, either modified or repealed.

Respectfully submitted,
CHAS. KOOCK,
ADOLPH HILLMAN,
CHAS. J. BOTZ,
F. E. HOFFMAN, SR.,
H. H. KROENCKE,
Committee.

Vice President Chas. Koock was elected a delegate to the state convention of the German-American league, which meets from September 5 to 8 in St. Louis, celebrating at the same time German day at Forest Park Highlands. Another delegate will be elected at the meeting to be held Sunday, August 18. Several other members have promised to attend the St. Louis convention to give Sedalia a good representation.

PRINTERS MET SUNDAY

Arranging for a Big Time on Labor Day, Monday, Sept. 2.

Sedalia Typographical Union No. 206 held its regular monthly meeting Sunday afternoon and perfected further arrangements for the celebration of Labor day on Monday, September 24.

The committee in charge consists of Herman Sailer, Sam McEwen, Earl Cundiff and Will Smythe, and the intention is to have the printers appear in the parade wearing high hats, linen dusters and carrying canes.

The desire of the Federation of Labor is to make the 1907 celebration the most elaborate in the history of organized labor in Sedalia.

SHOT BY AN ASSASSIN

Ex-Governor General of Odessa Early This Morning.

Platigorski, Caucasus, Aug. 5.—General Karakozoff, ex-governor general of Odessa, was shot and killed in the center of the town this morning. The assassin escaped.

The general, in 1905, took severe measures to repress the disturbance in Odessa, instructing the police to fire directly into the mob.

Is "Billy" White to Go?

Rumor has it that Oklahoma City will drop "Billy" White, the popular little shortstop, because he is not clouting the ball as he did last year. Manager McFarland had better give the matter mature consideration before he applies the ax.

Negroes Celebrating at the Park.

The negroes of Sedalia and surrounding country are today celebrating Emancipation day at Liberty park, there being a very fair attendance. There are a number of amusements and contests on the program, and the festivities will conclude with a dance tonight. The Queen City Cornet band is furnishing the music.

Connection Not Made Yet.

The City Water Co. did not make a connection at the plant with its new mains Sunday, as had been hoped for, but will do so as soon as an additional main is laid in the southern portion of the city.

Story Hour at Library.

About thirty children were present at the story hour at the public library this morning and were entertained with stories by Miss Margaret Curran, one of the assistant librarians, on "The Life and Work of Raphael."

MOB VENGEANCE SUNDAY

IT HELD SWAY IN NEW YORK AND A LYNCHING WAS NARROWLY AVERTED.

THE RESULT OF CRIMES ON WOMEN

Prompt Action by the Police Alone Saved the Lives of Two Men—Eight Attempted Assaults Reported.

New York, Aug. 5.—The fact that yesterday mob vengeance held sway and a lynching was narrowly averted has added to the seriousness of the situation caused by the recent remarkable series of crimes in which women and young girls are the victims.

The mob attacks reveal a state of public exasperation approaching frenzy, which, it is feared, may easily lead to serious disorders.

Prompt action by the police alone yesterday saved two men accused on Sunday from summary justice.

On Saturday no less than eight females were the victims of assaults or attempted assaults in various portions of the city.

KILLED A RABID DOG

Had a Chase Out West Sixth Street Sunday Evening.

People on Ohio street, at Sixth, had a scare Sunday evening, when "Bud" Shepherd's white bulldog was seized with hydrophobia.

The dog had become lost during the afternoon, but at the supper hour it was located at the locality stated by Mr. Shepherd and Dr. Guy Titsworth.

The brute was chased to Sixth street and Missouri avenue, shots being fired at it in the meantime, but it finally became necessary to throw a piece of carpet over the dog to prevent it biting any person and it was then beaten to death.

During the shooting a large plate glass in the window of Ridgley's Credit store had a hole shot through it by one of the bullets fired from Dr. Titsworth's pistol.

WOMAN WAS OUTRAGED

Then She Was Choked to Death, After Escort Was Shot.

Dayton, Ohio, Aug. 5.—Abe Gordon, a traveling salesman of this city, was shot and probably fatally wounded, and his companion, Anna Markowitz, assaulted and choked to death last night, west of this city. The murderer escaped.

Will Not Sell Franchise.

The franchise of the Springfield ball club in the Western association will not be sold. Offers for it were not satisfactory, and the team will continue to hold forth in Springfield until the close of the season.

Saloon Cases Continued.

The saloon cases pending a hearing before the county court were continued today to August 12, the continuance being granted on account of the presentation of new petitions.

DR. GEO. Y. SALMON DEAD

THE END CAME AT CLINTON, MO., AT 8:55 O'CLOCK MONDAY MORNING.

WAS NATIVE OF NORTH CAROLINA

Came to Versailles, Mo., in 1830, and Had Been a Resident of Clinton, Henry County, Ever Since 1860.

Special to the Democrat-Sentinel.

Clinton, Mo., Aug. 5.—Dr. George Young Salmon, who sustained a third paralytic stroke about a month ago and had been speechless since, died at his home here at 8:55 o'clock this morning, aged 80 years.

He is survived by his wife, who was a daughter of Rev. L. C. Marvin, speaker of the Missouri house of representatives in 1862, and also by two sons and two daughters.

Dr. Salmon was a native of North Carolina, he having been born there June 27, 1827. In 1830 he came to Versailles, Mo., with his father and began the study of medicine. Later he was graduated from the Louisville Medical college.

After the war Dr. Salmon removed to Clinton and practiced his profession until 1866, when, in company with D. C. Stone, he established the Salmon & Stone bank, a state institution.

In 1871 the name was changed to the Salmon & Salmon bank, and it did a large business until June 21, 1905, when it failed, owing to the crookedness of its cashier, George Casey, who is now in the penitentiary at Jefferson City serving a sentence for his wrongdoing.

The failure of the bank was a severe blow to Dr. Salmon, and also to his brother, Major Harvey W. Salmon. Dr. Salmon began failing rapidly immediately after the suspension of the bank and his demise today was not unexpected.

PRETTY CHILLY SUNDAY

The Mercury Registered 60 Degrees at 7 O'clock A. M.

Sunday was about the chilliest day even the oldest inhabitant calls to mind in any August, the mercury registering 60 at 7 a. m., against 62 on Saturday.

Wraps and light overcoats were not uncomfortable, and especially was this the case after the supper hour.

It was cool the entire day, and the rain that fell did not improve matters. Fact is, many were reminded that the season for buying one's winter fuel is not far distant.

WILL MOVE A KATY DEPOT

The Contract Awarded to Smith & McCabe, of Sedalia.

McCabe & Smith, house moving contractors of this city, have the contract to move the M. K. & T. depot from the Junction to New Franklin, Mo. They will begin work tomorrow morning.

While not stated authoritatively, it is said that the moving of this depot is a preliminary toward changing the terminals from Franklin Junction to Nokane, Mo.

The distance between the Junction and New Franklin is something over a mile.

FORMER SEDALIAN DEAD

Was Founder and Editor of Great Bend, Kas., Tribune.

Judge C. P. Townsley, editor of the Great Bend, Kas., Tribune, which he founded, and one of the most prominent men in Missouri immediately after the civil war, died at his home in Great Bend Sunday, aged 74 years.

Judge Townsley was for many years a resident of Sedalia, during which period he practiced law, but a quarter of a century or so ago he removed to Great Bend, where he had resided continuously since.

St. Vincent Church Social.

There will be a lawn social at Fourth and Lafayette streets on August 20th, given by some of the ladies of St. Patrick's parish.

Working for State Road.

Hon. E. E. Johnston, J. W. Mellor, W. H. Cloney and G. H. Scruton went to Jefferson City at noon today to represent Sedalia before the commission to select a route for the cross-the-state highway. N. H. Gentry, a member of the commission, went up on the same train.

The Birth of a Daughter.

Dr. G. L. Shepard is in receipt of information of the birth of a daughter, to be named Katherine Louise, to his daughter, Mrs. Clara Miller, wife of the Rev. Newton Miller, at Newark, O., the past week. This is their second child, the first born being a son.

Two Cases in Police Court.

The only cases in police court this morning were those of Lee Howell and Major Jackson. Howell was fined $5 for fighting, and Jackson got a like dose for imbibing too much booze.

CRIME WAVE IN CHICAGO

FIVE MYSTERIOUS ASSAULTS AROUSE THE ENTIRE POLICE FORCE.

ALL OF THE VICTIMS ARE MALES

Four of the Men Were Killed, While the Fifth Was Fatally Wounded—It Is Time for the Police to Get Busy.

Chicago, Aug. 5.—Five mysterious assaults, in which four men were killed and another fatally wounded, aroused the entire police force to energetic action early today. The victims were:

Fusario Urocco, found on the doorstep of his home with stiletto wounds in his body.

Edward Smith, a policeman, shot and killed by an unknown man while walking near his home.

John L. Barbour, found dead on the Illinois Central track, his head having been cut off by a train.

John Naughton, who died after being assaulted by three strangers at Thirty-seventh street and Lowe avenue.

William Donovan, dying of a bullet wound, and who was found in a basement on Hermitage avenue, said to have been robbed by three men, one of whom shot him.

BURIAL OF MR. PREGGE

The Rev. Samuel Buechner Conducted the Services.

The funeral of Henry Pregge, who died Saturday afternoon, was held this afternoon at 2 o'clock from the home of his daughter, Mrs. J. L. Bellmer, 530 East Fourth street, and from the German M. E. church at 2:30 o'clock, the pastor, the Rev. Samuel Buechner, officiating.

There was quite a large attendance of sorrowing friends, and the many floral tributes attested in a slight degree to the esteem in which the deceased was held.

The following friends of the family served as pallbearers: Peter Brandt, Cord Brandt, Charles P. Seow, Henry Rodekohl, Peter Mueller and G. H. Sandfort.

ATTEMPT TO WRECK TRAIN

It Was Made On the Pennsylvania Railway Sunday.

Pittsburg, Pa., Aug. 5.—An attempt was made yesterday to wreck the New York and Chicago limited express on the Pennsylvania road. Just outside Allegheny splice bars were nailed to a tie.

The enormous weight of the engine drawing the train prevented derailment, and the only effect was to jolt the passengers badly.

Did Not Appear the Case.

Mary Rattler, a negress, sentenced Saturday by Judge Rickman to twenty days in jail for the theft of garments from Lizzie Jennings, also colored, did not take an appeal, as contemplated, and is now doing time at Sheriff Sprecher's Lamine boarding house.

THE WOODMEN FISH FRY

MORE THAN ONE HUNDRED LADIES AND GENTLEMEN PARTICIPATED.

SPENT SUNDAY ON MUDDY CREEK

Went Out in Private Conveyances, Ate Their Fill of the Finny Tribe and Returned Home Before the Supper Hour.

More than one hundred ladies and gentlemen belonging to Sedalia camp No. 16, Woodmen of the World, and its auxiliary, Queen City grove No. 1, Woodmen Circle, journeyed in private conveyances to a point near the farm of Norville McFarland, eight miles northeast of Sedalia, on Muddy Sunday, and participated in the annual fish fry of the order.

An abundance of fish had been caught on Saturday, and Sunday forenoon was devoted to the frying, so that by 1 o'clock everything was in readiness for the meal, which was spread upon the green sward, and that it was enjoyed to the fullest was plainly apparent.

At the conclusion of the feast the splendid drill team of Sedalia camp No. 16, sixteen members, gave an exhibition drill that won for them many compliments.

A light rain fell during the morning, which somewhat marred the festivities of the day, but the party had provided themselves with tents, and no one got a drenching.

About 3:30 o'clock the Woodmen broke ranks, entered their conveyances and returned to the city, one and all delighted with the day's outing.

FIRE SCARE IN NEW YORK

Hundreds, Dismissed and Hatless Girls Became Hysterical.

New York, Aug. 5.—Fire in a paint shop this afternoon seriously threatened the Mail and Express building and the Western Union building.

Soon after the fire started the Western Union ordered its employees on the upper floors to descend to the lower floors.

The offices of the Associated Press are also in the Western Union building.

An explosion of materials in the paint shop gave the fire a great headway. There was great excitement in the upper stories of the Western Union building, where more than 1,000 persons are employed.

Firemen to fight the flames were obliged to destroy six large Western Union cables, which put the ticker service out of commission.

Employees in the big office and business buildings contiguous to the fire were dismissed and hundreds of hatless girls congregated on the sidewalks, many being hysterical. The fire was brought under control at 2:25 o'clock.

A STOLEN RING RECOVERED

There Is $7 Still Missing—Woman Had Poison.

A woman named Mrs. White was "sweated" at her rooming place, the home of Mrs. E. Paris, on East Fifth street, this afternoon, and a stolen ring was recovered. The sum of $7 is also missing, but Mrs. White denies having any knowledge of it, and in consequence no arrest was made.

Deputy Constable Pete Phallings took from Mrs. White a bottle of carbolic acid, and the belief is that she contemplated suicide in the event she was arrested.

There may be another chapter later.

OPENING OF CAMPAIGN

Democrats of Indian Territory Are Enthusiastic.

McAlister, I. T., Aug. 5.—Thousands are here from all parts of the state for the opening of the democratic state campaign. Most of the state candidates are in attendance.

Haskell, Owen and Gore are the principal speakers. The meeting this afternoon and this evening will be in an immense tent.

Finished His Hay Harvest.

Col. John D. Crawford finished his hay harvest Sunday, work on the Sabbath being necessary to prevent the crop spoiling. The task was completed just before a heavy rain came up, and immediately afterwards Col. and Mrs. Crawford served a fine dinner to the hands. The crop consists of 100 acres, one-half timothy and the other half clover.

A Social Tomorrow Night.

The girls of Sacred Heart parish will give an ice cream and cake social on the lawn of the parochial residence, Third and Vermont streets, tomorrow night. The advance sale of tickets is reported large.

Sold Barber Shop for $800.

C. M. Nelson sold his barber shop at 111 South Osage street, today, to W. I. Palmer and Park Major. The consideration was $800. The new owners are in possession.

MARRIED ON SATURDAY

MR. FRANK FINE, AGED 21 YEARS, AND CORA MAY PHILLIPS, AGED 15 YEARS.

THE COUPLE ELOPED TO CLINTON

Returned to Sedalia Sunday and Are Now at Home to Their Many Friends at 313 East Pettis Street.

Frank Fine, aged 21, and Miss Cora May Phillips, aged 15, eloped from Sedalia to Clinton Saturday and were married there at 10:30 o'clock in the forenoon.

The couple returned to Sedalia Sunday, and are now receiving the congratulations of their friends at 313 East Pettis street.

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. S. C. Phillips, who recently removed to Kansas City, and now resides at 1516 McGee street in that city. She is also a niece of Mrs. J. R. Glazebrook, of 419 North Missouri avenue, this city.

The bridegroom is a popular employee at the M. K. & T. shops and lives with his parents at 313 East Pettis street.

So far as the Democrat-Sentinel has been able to learn, there was no particular objection to the marriage except on account of the youth of the bride.

To the happy couple the Democrat-Sentinel joins their many friends in extending congratulations.

STABBED FOURTEEN TIMES

Jealous Suitor Almost Kills Rival in Presence of Girl.

Muskogee, I. T., Aug. 5.—Insane jealousy caused a savage fight between James Hurt and John Moore, rivals for the hand of Jessie Fisher, at Chouteau, I. T., twenty-five miles north of here, and as a result Miss Fisher is in the custody of the officers and Hurt is so seriously injured that he will probably die.

Hurt was slashed fourteen times by Moore. The men fought on the depot platform, which was covered with blood. One of the men accompanied Miss Fisher to the depot, where the other was met unexpectedly, and the fight started.

JENNINGS BROUGHT BACK

Sedalia Negro Is Charged With Assault and Robbery.

Jum Jennings was arraigned before Judge Gresham, sitting as an ex-officio justice of the peace, this afternoon, and his preliminary hearing was set for August 21st. Jennings is charged with assaulting and robbing Edward English, of Warsaw, on the night of July 9. He escaped at the time and all efforts to locate him were in vain until Sunday, when he was arrested in Kansas City.

Acting Chief of Police Howard Wood detailed James Card to go after Jennings and the officer returned to Sedalia this morning with the prisoner.

STATE FAIR TO BE "DRY"

TIGHT LID IN SEDALIA, SAYS COL. J. R. RIPPEY, THE SECRETARY.

BOARD MEETS HERE TOMORROW

Missouri's State Board of Agriculture Settled Question—Site of the Fair Grounds Contains 160 Acres.

The directors of the Missouri state fair will meet at the office of Secretary J. R. Rippey tomorrow to make further arrangements for the seventh annual fair, October 5 to 11.

Sunday's Globe-Democrat made the announcement that Col. Rippey would not be a candidate for re-election to the office of secretary. Col. Rippey made the same announcement six months ago, as he desires to return to his farm in Schuyler county.

The Kansas City Times of this morning had the following dispatch from St. Louis:

The bid is to be on at the State Fair grounds in Sedalia. "Whatever other associations may do," said Colonel J. R. Rippey, secretary of the State Fair, "the state board of agriculture and the committee which has charge of the fair have settled the 'lid' question for this fair ground."

Missouri had a difficult task selecting the site for the State Fair. It finally chose Sedalia, the county seat of Pettis county, where the railroads contributed a site and gave a right of way to the fair grounds.

The site contains 160 acres and near it is a country club building. Two railroads and an electric line run to the grounds. The so-called breeders' law, which, heretofore, has furnished financial support for the fair, in addition to the gate receipts, was repealed by the general assembly and now the fair must depend on the gate receipts supplemented by direct appropriations by the general assembly. It requires about $50,000 a year to maintain the fair. The largest part of this amount, of course, comes from gate receipts. The present general assembly, for the first time in the fair's history, gave appropriations for the payment of premiums.

It is estimated that in October there is to be two million dollars' worth of stock on the fair grounds. Secretary Rippey's figures show entries of about 1,000 cattle, 1,000 hogs, 750 sheep, 500 horses and 500 mules.

300 DELEGATES ARE HERE

All Are Working for the East and West State Highway.

A telephone message to the Democrat-Sentinel at 2:45 o'clock this afternoon, from Jefferson City, stated that about three hundred delegates were there in the interest of the state highway that it is proposed to construct from St. Louis to Kansas City.

The meeting was not to convene until 3 o'clock, and the session gives promise of being a prolonged one.

Sedalia is represented by Representative E. E. Johnston, J. W. Mellor, W. H. Cloney and G. H. Scruton. There are strong delegations present in the interest of the north route, the central route and the southern route, and to the Sedalia delegation it looked as if the southern route people had a good chance of winning the prize.

OIL PRICE NOT TO ADVANCE

Despite the Standard Company's Saturday Fine.

New York, Aug. 5.—Charles M. Pratt, secretary of the Standard Oil company, said today that the company has no intention of advancing the price of oil.

Mr. Connor Is Quite Ill.

J. H. Connor, clerk at the Barnes-Kem Clothing Co., who is sick at his home at Lamonte, is said to be a very sick man. His ailment has been pronounced malarial fever.

Named as Administrator.

J. M. Lowry was today appointed administrator of the estate of Melissa Lowry, deceased.

INSURANCE RATES AND PROFITS.

John E. Tiedeman, formerly connected with the old Sedalia Sentinel,
now real estate editor of the St.
Louis Republic, had the following editorial in Sunday's edition of that paper:

After the great conflagration that followed the earthquake at San Francisco the fire underwriters advanced their rates on insurance all over the country to make up the California losses. The same policy is pursued in purely local territory when the losses of the companies in the particular field in which the advances are made are deemed to have been too heavy to leave a reasonable margin of profit.

In other words, in a way entirely unregulated by law and wholly free from governmental supervision, the insurance business is conducted so as to put the whole burden of expense directly on the insured and thus assure the companies that can live through the losses they must meet from time to time practical certainty of full compensation in the course of a term of years. The methods by which the underwriters accomplish this purpose seem indeed to be effective for something more than reasonable profit in many cases.

What can be said, for example, when the average annual dividend of a company during a ten year period is as much as 40 per cent? Yet this is said to be the experience of the "Fire Association," which had, prior to the San Francisco conflagration, a capital stock of $500,000, and paid out $2,000,000 in dividends in ten years.
Nor is that all, for the company at the same time increased its surplus $511,867.

The experience of this company is only a bit more striking than that of the average company, but not essentially different, since it is said that the average dividend earned by the fire companies during the last fifty years has been about 12 per cent.
This, too, in addition to large credits,
passed to the surplus and profit accounts.

These interesting figures are shown in an article appearing elsewhere in today's Republic.

It must be noted, however, that immediately after the enormous losses sustained by the fire insurance companies in the San Francisco conflagration, the stockholders of nearly all of them were compelled to come to the rescue and subscribe additional funds in the shape of capital and surplus to meet these losses. The amount so subscribed was nearly $40-000,000.

This was the history of all the companies that were doing business in the state at the time of the disaster, with the exception of those that failed or whose risks were reinsured in stronger and larger companies.

The San Francisco losses, which are estimated to have been more than $225,000,000 in property and $175,490-661 to the insurance companies, it is asserted, will wipe out the profits made by the companies in the last 100 years, provided the losses were all met. This length of time is probably overstated.

It was quite natural that the companies that survived these great losses would endeavor to recoup them, with the result that rates all over the United States were increased a certain percentage. These increases will enable the companies to make larger earnings than ever, and thus restore them to their former basis within a reasonable time.

In St. Louis the increase resulted in the promulgation of the Dean schedule, which at the time was stated not to be an advance in rates, but merely a scientific method of rating the different risk classifications. It was later found that in many instances the rates had been greatly advanced, especially in the congested district, where the conflagration hazard is regarded as the greatest.

The companies have advanced rates in order to regain the losses sustained and also to continue previous dividend payment. Insurance rates are not the same at so much per thousand of insurance on a certain class of risks in all parts of the country, but are dictated solely by the previous experience of the company in the particular district or state. In the case of the San Francisco losses the entire country is made to suffer.

FRANCE HAS GOOD SHOW FOR MOROCCO.

The frequency with which France has been called to exercise her police powers in Morocco is perhaps more significant and interesting than the specific instance now under treatment.
Two main facts in this connection are worthy of comment in taking a view of the situation broadly. France covets Morocco. The momentary checking by Germany of her policy of absorbing Northern Africa has not in the least altered her ambition to ultimately realize this ambition. Everything concerning France's relations with Morocco both before and since the Algeiras convention points irresistibly to the conclusion that she is working to one end, and that that end is not merely political control and commercial supremacy, but actual possession of the territory as a French colony.

The second fact of importance is that Morocco is in an untamed, chaotic, irresponsible state. If European interests are to retain the foothold they have secured there, the government must come under their control. Native administration and native police can never maintain order among the Arabs, nor will they ever advance the nation socially and industrially to the plane of modern civilization. If such changes are to take place they must be upon the initiative and under the direction of Europeans.

Putting these things together, the question arises, who is going to rule Morocco? Will it be France alone, Germany alone, both combined or all the authorities of the Algeiras convention? This question can not be answered in the immediate future.
Perhaps the solution of the problem may require many generations. But the facts point logically to Morocco as French territory in the end. Germany is the only nation in Europe that is opposed. France had, before the Kaiser interfered, the moral support of Great Britain, Spain and Portugal, and there is every reason for believing that her aims in Morocco today holds the endorsement of those powers in an even stronger degree than two years ago.

The political and commercial alliance into which they have entered must of necessity recognize each other's spheres of influence and keep them distinct and separate. None of these nations, and with them may be included Italy, Austria and Russia, have any substantial reasons for opposing French rule in Morocco. In fact, they would all prefer French to German dominion; not that they love France more, but that they fear her less. This powerful factor in France's favor will go a long way toward enabling her to acquire Morocco, Germany to the contrary notwithstanding.

The Crops Look Fine.

Al Baumgartner drove to the country, about eight miles south, Sunday, and says he never saw finer crops in Pettis county.

SHAKE UP NOT THROUGH

GOV. FOLK SAYS HE WILL STIR UP WHOLE KANSAS CITY DEPARTMENT.

THERE ARE OTHERS WHO MUST GO

Says the Trouble Is That the Street Railway Controls the Policemen
—St. Louis Department
Is in Good Shape.

St. Louis, Aug. 5.—Governor Folk told a reporter at the Southern hotel Saturday night that the removal of Police Commissioner Rozzelle and Chief of Police Hayes is only the beginning of a general reorganization of the Kansas City police department.
The governor dismissed as of trifling importance Commissioner Rozzelle's charge that he is seeking to use the Kansas City police for political purposes.

The most demoralizing feature of the Kansas City situation, according to Governor Folk, was the predominant influence of the $25,000,000 Metropolitan Street Railway company.
"Evidence taken at the investigation shows that members of the Kansas City police department received extra compensation in damage cases when they testified on the side of the Metropolitan company," said Governor Folk.

"Naturally this additional pay attracted favorable testimony for the defendant company. Litigants were treated shamefully. Policemen not only volunteered to go on the witness stand for the Metropolitan company, but they discredited in some instances the unfortunates who had been injured by the company's cars.

"These conditions more than the alliance of certain members of the police and detective departments with thieves called for drastic remedy on the part of the board of police commissioners.

"After careful deliberation, I concluded that Mr. Rozzelle and Chief Hayes were not in sympathy with the work of reforming the department along anti-corruption and anti-political lines.

"If there has been any politics played in the removal of Mr. Rozzelle, the fact will be clearly shown by subsequent developments. The people of Kansas City will, I am sure, judge the motives of myself and the board of police commissioners by the results that follow.

"A great deal has already been done towards bettering the Kansas City department, but if necessary I want the cleansing to go on until every grafter, crook and corporation ally is ousted from the service."

Regarding the St. Louis department
Governor Folk said:

"There is to be no reorganization of the St. Louis police department so far as I am advised. This department was cleaned up a year or so ago and I know of no occasion for any general shakeup.

"I believe the St. Louis police department is today the most efficient, most honest and freest from graft of any department in the United States. It is out of politics and on a basis of public service alone.

"Of course, there are things that can be improved, and that no doubt will be from time to time. Chief Cree-y I consider a superb chief. The board is composed of men of the highest type—mentally and morally.
"The report that Mr. Stewart has been asked to resign is not true. He will remain on the board as long as he can be induced to do so. I have absolute confidence in him in every way."

John Riha, a prominent dealer of Vining, Ia., says: "I have been selling DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills for about a year and they give better satisfaction than any pill I ever sold.
There are a dozen people here who have used them and they give perfect satisfaction in every case. I have used them myself with fine results." Sold by Arlington Pharmacy.

SWALLOWED $125 GEM

Diamond Ring Goes the Way of Candy and Peanuts.

Lawrenceburg, Ind., Aug. 5.—A peculiar and novel accident occurred upon the first appearance for the season of the grand organ and monkey.
While making his exhibition on the streets of the city the monkey was handed peanuts and candies, as is usual, by the children.

While appearing before a confectionery store on Walnut street, a traveling man by the name of W. A.
Williams, representing an electrical firm of Chicago, attempted to hand
the monkey a piece of candy.

The monkey, in reaching for the sweet, also obtained a ring from the finger of the giver, and swallowed the ring with the candy.

After explaining to the Italian what occurred, the owner of the monkey thanked and beat the little animal, but failed to restore the precious gem.

The owner of the monkey offered $125 for the monkey by having $25, but the owner refused, realizing the importance of the situation.

The traveling man agreed to pay the board and expenses for keeping the monkey and owner for a few days at a hotel. Mr. Williams says that the ring is worth $125 and was a present from his wife.

The monkey has been in the care of a local physician.

A HORRIBLE ACCIDENT

BOY'S LIMB LITERALLY TORN FROM HIS BODY AT BOON-VILLE, MISSOURI.

OVERALLS CAUGHT IN A BIG SHAFT

One Foot Torn Off at the Ankle, and On the Other Leg One-Half of the Flesh Was Peeled Off to the Hip.

One of the most horrible accidents that ever took place in Central Missouri occurred Saturday morning at the Boonville Brick company's plant in West Boonville.

Ferdinand Stretz, the 15-year-old son of Henry Stretz, a well known bricklayer, was playfully putting his foot on the big revolving shaft in the mud mixer, says the Boonville Democrat, when the bottom of his overalls caught and drew his leg down until it wound around the shaft, pulling his foot off at the ankle and tearing out one bone and stripping the flesh entirely off the other leg below the knee, and peeling away half the flesh clear to his hip before the machinery could be thrown out of gear.

Drs. Smiley, Russell and Evans hurried to the scene and temporarily cared for the boy, and ordered him removed to the family home near the Training school, where, after a consultation, it was decided that only an amputation of the remainder of the injured leg could save his life.

At this hour the little fellow is resting easily and the physicians says his chances for recovery are favorable.

The managers of the brick company state that the little fellow was employed shoveling clay on the dump about seventy-five feet from where the accident occurred, and his presence at the machinery was not noticed until his cries gave the alarm.

It was a most unfortunate and serious accident, and the company for whom he was working regret it sorely, stating that he was a lad of exemplary habits and had an earnest and industrious disposition.

UNION BAND DIDN'T MARCH

Patterned After the Second Regiment Band of Sedalia.

Pittsburg, Kas., Aug. 5.—A parade to celebrate the acquittal of W. D. Haywood, secretary-treasurer of the Western Federation of Miners, was almost disrupted at the last moment by the refusal of a union band to march with non-union bands Saturday.

The T. O. Williams band of Frontenac, a union organization, had been given the post of honor. Two other bands in the parade were not made up of union musicians, so the Frontenac band marched away and disbanded.

Some union miners then dropped out, and it was necessary to reorganize the parade. The demonstration was arranged by socialists.

AUGUST CROP REPORT

FAST MONTH WAS VERY FAVORABLE FOR CORN GROWING IN MISSOURI.

WHEAT WAS DAMAGED BY THE RAIN

Hay Harvest Delayed By the Scarcity of Hands—Fruit Nearer Failure Than for Years—Live Stock Doing Well.

Columbia, Mo., Aug. 5.—The regular monthly statement on the condition of crops for Missouri was issued Saturday by Geo. B. Ellis, secretary state board of agriculture, as follows:

Corn—The month of July has been very favorable for the growth of corn. The high temperature and frequent showers throughout most parts of the state have caused the corn to push forward rapidly and the condition has improved six points for the entire state since our last report. By sections the improvement is: Northeast, 5 points; northwest, 7 points; central, 6 points; southwest, 2 points, and southeast, 2 points.

The southeast section shows a present condition of 75, which is the lowest for any section in the state, while the northwest section shows a condition of 90 being the highest of any part of the state. The low condition in the southeast has been caused largely by drought, but the droughty conditions have been largely relieved by rains falling on the 28th. A few counties in the Ozark region also report considerable damage from drought. Some damage has been caused in the central and northern parts of the state by excessive rains, and in a few localities by hail storms. The condition, which is 83 for the state, however, is a full average and is exactly the same as the condition one year ago. The corn crop is estimated to be 18 days later than the average, but with favorable weather and the ordinary season during the fall there is sufficient time to ripen the entire crop.

Wheat—The wheat crop has been considerably damaged by excessive rains. One month ago our correspondent reported that almost the entire crop would grade No. 2; but in many neighborhoods the wheat has been so damaged that very little of it will grade No. 2, and most of it will be below grade. There has been considerable damage to the wheat crop along the Missouri and Mississippi and other smaller rivers, particularly in the northwest and northeast sections, from overflow. While this damage has been heavy in some communities, when compared with the entire crop of the state it will be light. Threshing has not progressed sufficiently to make a revised estimate, but the indications are that the average yield will be up to the preliminary estimate made one month ago, which was 13.6 bushels per acre for the entire state. The estimate of total yield of between 29 and 30 millions bushels for the state will probably hold good.

Meadows—The harvesting of the hay crop has been delayed on account of the scarcity of hands. Never in the history of the state has there been so much difficulty in securing hands for harvesting, notwithstanding the fact that wages are from 25 to 50 per cent more than the usual price. However, most of the hay crop has been harvested in fine condition, although quite a percentage of it has been allowed to get over-ripe before cutting. The acreage of hay is about 50 per cent less than last year, meadows having been plowed up and planted to corn. The estimated yield per acre, however, is 1.3 tons for the entire state, compared with only .93 of a ton one year ago.

Fruits—The fruit crop taken as a whole is perhaps nearer a failure than for any year in the history of the state. The condition of apples compared with an average crop is only 9. The highest condition is in the southeast section, 19; the lowest in the southwest, 2. In the central section the condition is 5, northwest section 6 and northeast 13.

The peach crop is also a practical failure except along the Mississippi river hills in southeast Missouri, particularly in Perry county, where some orchards report a good crop; also in the south central Ozark region in the neighborhood of Koshong and south, a fair crop is being harvested.

Pears and plums are also a practical failure. Notwithstanding the fact that grapes were frozen back at two different times, it is estimated that there will be a little more than half a crop. The recent rains, however, caused the grapes to rot badly.

The condition of melons for the entire state is 65. In southeast Missouri, where the principal area of the commercial crop of melons is grown, the condition is only 59. The droughty conditions in that section, together with the unfavorable weather in the early part of the season, has caused the very low condition.

Live stock—Very little complaint is made of hog cholera which was prevalent in the early part of the season, and most all classes of live stock are doing well.

Pastures are generally in very fine condition.

TO BUY A STEEL TOWN

The Trust is Making Preparations to Take Over Midland, Pa.

Pittsburg, Pa., Aug. 5.—The large plant of the Midland Steel company, about thirty miles below Pittsburg, as well as the model town of Midland, in the course of construction, is about to be sold. The deal involves about $15,000,000. It is understood that the Steel corporation is taking over this remarkable plant. For more than a week now there has been a cessation of work at the plant, and while access is denied to outsiders, it is understood that there is being taken an inventory of what is on hand.

The report first reaching Pittsburg was that the Jones & Laughlin Steel company, a rival of the trust, was closing for the property, but this concern made an emphatic denial, and it is understood it is the corporation which has decided to absorb what promises to be a big rival.

The details are not to be announced for some weeks.

ROOSTER ATTACKS WOMAN

Game Cock Inflicts Severe Injuries With Spurs.

Greenville, Aug. 5.—Mrs. George Worrell, of Sandy Lake, was seriously injured Sunday afternoon in a fierce encounter with a big game rooster, which attacked her when she went into her chicken yard to care for a setting hen.

While Mrs. Worrell was stooping over the pen the big game cock sprang at her, driving his spurs and claws into the fleshy part of her face and shoulders.

The force of the first attack knocked the woman to the ground and the angry bird sprang at her and clawed and spurred, eating the flesh from her face and shoulders and arms before she escaped from the yard.

CAT ADOPTS TWO RATS

Feline Prizes Rodents as Much as Her Kittens.

Fiat River, Mo., Aug. 5.—Molly, the feline mascot of the electrical supply house of the Federal Lead company in this city, has adopted two young rats, which she is rearing together with three young kittens.

The little rodents are as much at home as the kittens, and the mother cat seems to prize them as highly as she does her own offspring.

Heretofore, Molly has been a most persistent hunter of rats and mice, and the office force at the Federal is rather doubtful about the trustworthiness of Molly's intentions.

The Cause of Many Sudden Deaths.

There is a disease prevailing in this country most dangerous because so deceptive. Many sudden deaths are caused by it—heart disease, pneumonia, failure, or apoplexy are often the result of kidney disease. If kidney trouble is allowed to advance the kidney-poisoned blood will attack the vital organs, causing catarrh of the bladder, or the kidneys themselves break down and waste away cell by cell. Bladder troubles almost always result from a derangement of the kidneys and a cure is obtained quickest by a proper treatment of the kidneys. If you are feeling badly you can make no mistake by taking Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

It corrects inability to hold urine and scalding pain in passing it, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often through the day, and to get up many times during the night. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases.

Swamp-Root is pleasant to take and is sold by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful new discovery and a book that tells all about it, both sent free by mail. Address, Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

MAY BE 1,000 MEN IDLE

Kansas City Stonemasons and Bricklayers on Strike.

Building contractors in Kansas City are uneasy over the strike of stonemasons and bricklayers in connection with a lockout of the stone cutters in certain yards.

There are about 300 men idle now, the Star says, and it is feared that there will be a thousand men idle by the end of the week.

As carpenters, steamfitters and a dozen other trades work on brick and stone buildings, the idleness of these two trades will throw out the other workmen as fast as they finish their part of the work.

"We never repent of eating too little," was one of the ten rules of life of Thomas Jefferson, president of the United States, and the rule applies to every one without exception during this hot weather, because it is hard for food, even in small quantities, to be digested when the blood is at high temperature. At this season we should eat sparingly and properly. We should also help the stomach as much as possible by the use of a little Kodol for indigestion and dyspepsia, which will rest the stomach by digesting the food itself. Sold by Arlington Pharmacy.

Third Continuance of Case.

The "cussing case" in which John Hardin is the defendant was continued again this morning to August 8. This is the third continuance of the case, but Judge Clark is of the opinion that it will get to trial before many days now.

My delivery boy left a child's white embroidery hat at wrong address. Will the person who has it return it to my store and oblige.—Mrs. Monahan Collier.

GAMBLING LAW MAKERS ARE IGNORED BY COLE COUNTY GRAND JURY.

INDICTMENTS ARE NOT RETURNED

True Bills, However, Found Against Jefferson City Keepers of Resorts and the Owners of Buildings.

Jefferson City, Mo., Aug. 5.—Though evidence submitted to the Cole county grand jury showed that more than thirty members of the Missouri legislature were nightly frequenters of Jefferson City gambling resorts and often played for high stakes, no indictments were returned against any of them.

Prosecuting Attorney J. G. Slate said he believed the purpose of the law was accomplished when he caused the indictment of those alleged to be operating the games.

Forty-two indictments were returned by the grand jury, which adjourned Saturday. Many were on gambling charges, while others were against proprietors of saloons who conducted business on Sunday that many legislators' thirsts might be quenched.

The report of the grand jury has created great excitement in the capital, more so from the fact that very few of the indictments have been made public. The fact that Jefferson City is not accustomed to reform waves has caused the city to pay particular attention to this one.

Prosecuting Attorney Slate says no members of the legislature were indicted, and that no indictments were found against any players.

It was well known that several dice and poker games were run wide open in Jefferson City during both the regular and extra sessions of the legislature. They were patronized by many members of the senate and house, as well as many prominent in society affairs at the state capital.

The grand jury was in session a week and a large number of witnesses were examined. The list included many young men of prominence in Jefferson City and they, as well as many who were not witnesses, have been in great suspense for fear indictments would be returned against them for gambling. Prosecuting Attorney Slate said:

"I did not believe the purpose of the law would be subverted by causing indictments to be returned against members of the legislature, many of whom are prominent throughout the state, as well as in their own communities. Neither did I believe it could be right to bring disgrace upon young men who stand well here in Jefferson City."

"I was of the opinion in beginning the investigations that the keepers of the resorts and those who rented their premises for the purpose of gambling should be punished and I shall prosecute them with all power of my office."

"I did not have any members of either house here as witnesses, though I could have summoned many. I was able, however, to get all the testimony I needed without troubling them to come here."

"I have every reason to believe I shall have convictions on the indictments returned."

Very few names of those indicted have been made public. Probably the most prominent is Jacob Ruwart, wealthy property owner, who is charged with renting the second floor of a building on High street, a block from the governor's mansion, to J. E. (Big John) McKee, a St. Louis gambler, who was convicted in the circuit court here Wednesday and was sentenced to the penitentiary for two years.

McKee was arrested in a raid on the gambling house by Sheriff Scott while the legislature was in session, and an information was filed against him by Prosecutor Slate.

Herman Brueggling and James Kierns, proprietors of the Falstaff bar, were indicted on a charge of renting rooms for gambling purposes. They were also indicted on a charge of selling liquor on Sunday.

Joseph Tihen was indicted on a charge of conducting a gambling house in rooms over the Falstaff bar.

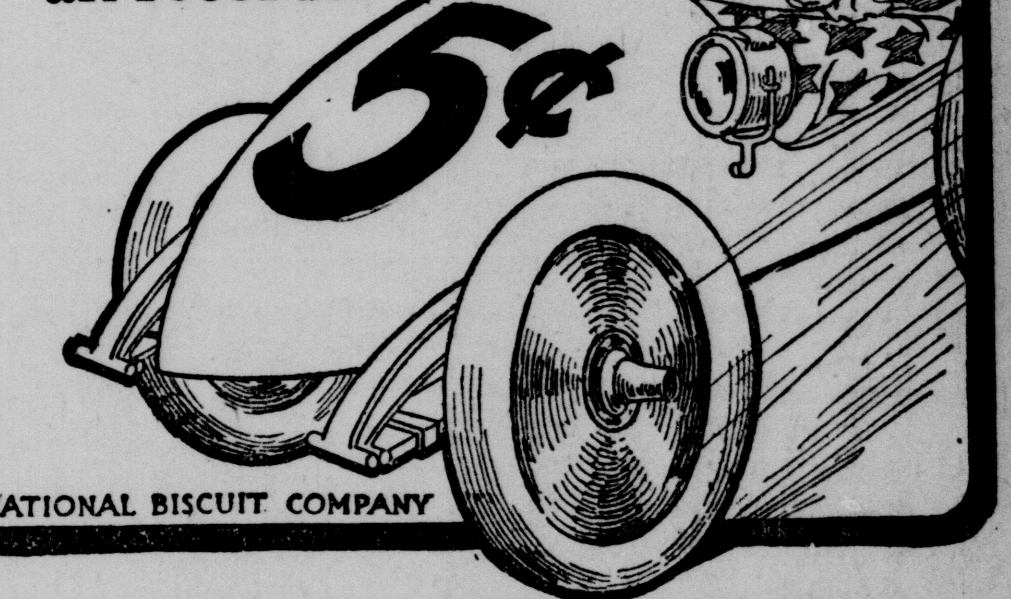

Arrests on the other indictments will be made within a few days, Sheriff Scott says, and until the persons are in custody their names will not be made public.

Handsomeness Souvenir Catalogue.

The Democrat-Sentinel has received the catalogue of the Kemper Military school at Boonville, Mo., for its sixty-third year, ended May 29, 1907. This is one of the oldest and best educational institutions in Missouri, Col. T. A. Johnston being the efficient president. The catalogue at hand is beautifully illustrated, gives the yearly roster of graduates since the school was established, and is certainly worthy of preservation as a book of reference.

MRS. MARY GREGOVICH

Of Philipsburg, Montana, Tells How She Was Cured of Dandruff.

Mrs. Mary Gregovich, of Philipsburg, Montana, under date of Nov. 26, 1899, writes: "I had typhoid fever this summer, consequently was losing my hair terribly, and my head in places was perfectly bald. Newbro's Herpicide had just come into use in Philipsburg, and the doctor strongly recommended it to me. After three or four applications my hair stopped falling out, and is coming in again quite thick. I used to be troubled greatly with dandruff, of which I am now quite cured." Kill the dandruff germ with Herpicide. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. Two sizes, 50c and $1. W. E. Bard Drug Co., special agents.

Fourth Annual Picnic.

Dresden camp No. 4177, M. W. of A., will hold its fourth annual picnic at Gorrill's grove, one and one-half miles north of Dresden, Wednesday, August 7. There will be addresses by Mark A. McGruder and T. A. Luckett, and the Second Regiment band will furnish the music. There will also be a number of contests, including a wheelbarrow contest, a hitching contest for ladies, a nail driving contest for ladies, sack race, race for boys under 14, race for girls, etc.

Feeding the Kaiser.

Feeding the German emperor is no light task. Despite all that is said about the kaiser's Spartan habits there are few monarchs who keep more elaborate tables.

He has no less than four chefs—Seldenstucker, a German; Harding, an Englishman; an Italian and a Frenchman—so that he can have his meals for the day served in the style of whatever nation he may happen to fancy.

Each of these chefs has his staff of assistants, while, in addition, there is an individual who may be described as "sausage maker to the kaiser."

His majesty is very fond of the huge white frankfurter sausage, and has a supply of them made fresh every day in his own kitchen. When engaged in maneuvering his army on a big field day these frankfurters and bread, washed down with lager beer, invariably form the kaiser's lunch.—Cleveland Leader.

GREEN RIDGE "LID" CASES

Third One Against T. J. Bolton Comes Up Tuesday.

The following was written for the Sunday Morning Democrat-Sentinel, but was inadvertently omitted:

Roy Coy and Dr. H. A. Hite, Green Ridge druggists, who were arrested last week, charged with selling liquor without a license, were arraigned for trial before Justice Joseph Elliott at Green Ridge Saturday. Cox's case was the first called. H. D. Dow and George Barnett, Jr., represented the state. The defendant pleaded guilty and was fined $49 and costs, a total of $71.35.

Dr. Hite's case was the next called. The defendant, through his attorney, Judge George F. Longan, asked for a jury trial, which was granted. After hearing the evidence, the jury retired, returning later and stating that no verdict could be reached, three standing out for conviction, while the other three were for acquittal.

T. J. Bolton, another Green Ridge druggist, who last Thursday was fined $40 and costs for selling liquor without a license, was rearrested Saturday, charged with the commission of a similar offense. He pleaded guilty and was fined $40 and costs.

Immediately afterward, Mr. Bolton was rearrested for a third commission of the same offense. He furnished bond for his appearance in court Friday.

Those who have stomach trouble, no matter how slight, should give every possible help to the digestive organs, so that the food may be digested with the least effort. This may be done by taking something that contains natural digestive properties—something like Kodol for indigestion and dyspepsia. Kodol is a preparation of vegetable acids and contains the very same juices found in a healthy stomach. It digests what you eat. Sold by Arlington Pharmacy.

CLEANED UP $100,000

In Wall Street After Carnegie Had Refused Aid.

Des Moines, Iowa, Aug. 5.—Flushed with success, after cleaning up $100,000 on Wall street, Prof. E. T. Eaton, president of the Presbyterian college at Deer Lodge, Montana, came to Des Moines and told former college friends how it happened.

Refused by Andrew Carnegie $50,000 for his college, he came east and bearded the lion in his den. On the advice of friends on the "Street" he was enabled to net a comfortable fortune out of the market, without putting up a cent, friends doing the speculating for him.

Prof. Eaton was former school superintendent of Delaware county, an alumnus of Highland park college, and later dean of that institution.

THE STATE GETS DELAY

IN THE CASE OF F. H. MAGILL
AND HIS WIFE AT CLINTON, TON, ILL.

CHARGES ARE TAKEN UP APART

Claim Made Prosecution Has Not
Letters and Witness Is Gone—
The Defendants Were Released on $5,000 Bond.

Clinton, Ill., Aug. 5.—Saturday brought another victory for the state in the Magill poison case. Despite the earnest work of the five lawyers employed by Fred H. and Fay Graham Magill, State's attorney Miller and his associate, Lot R. Herrick, secured a ruling from Judge Cochran preventing an immediate trial and postponing the hearing to an indefinite date.

The judge placated the lawyers for the defendants somewhat by agreeing to secure, if possible, the services of another judge within the next two weeks, and to order the trial opened if the jurist would consent to preside. Judge Cochran said that he himself would be unable to undertake the hearing.

"I do not know that I can get another judge to come here during the present month," said Judge Cochran, "and if I can not the state's motion for a continuance until the regular November term will be formally granted. I will return here next Friday and inform you of the result of my mission."

The general feeling in Clinton is that Judge Cochran will not be successful in his attempt to get another judge to hear the Magill case this month. It is argued that nearly all jurists devote August to recreation, and that no judge will care to come to Clinton in the dog days and hear a difficult case simply to please Mr. Lemon and his associates. In the meantime the accused remain in the county jail. Bail was furnished in the sum of $5,000 by Fay Graham. Her bondsmen are her father, W. W. Graham, and her uncle, Dr. S. A. Graham, of Kankakee.

Continuance was asked, first on the ground that the state believed the so-called "suicide" letters were forgeries, but has no means at this time of knowing, the letters having been refused the grand jury. It contended it must have time to secure an expert, after having the letters in its possession.

The last letter in which Mrs. Pet Magill is said to have advised her husband to leave the city and marry Fay Graham Magill is not in the hands of the state, it was declared. The prosecutors believe it is forgery.

The state declared it expected to show that Fay Graham and Fred Magill were together frequently prior to their marriage, both in this city and at hotels in other cities. They asked for time to get witnesses to prove these allegations.

Another reason given why the trial should be delayed was that the organs of the body of Mrs. Pet Magill were sent to the Chicago laboratories for examination July 17, and a full and complete report of that examination had not yet been received by the state. The excitement occasioned by the wide publicity given to the case, both by local and other papers, would make it difficult to secure a jury at this time, the prosecutors said.

The fact that the state received information July 21 from one Warren Holten, of Denver, Col., that he would be able to show by letters received from Fay Graham Magill that Fred Magill did kill his wife, Pet Magill, and that Fay Graham Magill was an accessory, was also given as a reason. It asked for time that it might secure this witness. Attorney C. K. Ingham argued for immediate trial.

WHOLE FAMILY SHOCKED

Thrown Over Embankment by a Lightning Bolt.

Sidney, Ohio, Aug. 5.—While Henry H. Apple, one of the wealthiest farmers of Shelby county, was driving home from Versailles he was caught in a severe electrical storm. His horse was struck by lightning and instantly killed.

The carriage, in which were Apple, his wife and two children, with the hired man, named Miller, fell over a steep embankment and the occupants were thrown out. All were severely shocked and lay unconscious in the drenching rain for some time.

The two children were the first to regain consciousness and soon brought assistance from a farm house about a quarter of a mile away.

Mr. and Mrs. Apple are still in a serious condition. The others are out of danger.

New Regulations for Cadets in the Military Academy.

West Point, N. Y.—Under new regulations for the cadets in the Military academy, annual physical examinations will be held. The new regulations, it is understood, were made with the approval of President Roosevelt and were promulgated by Surgeon General O'Reilly.

The height requirements have been increased a full inch and the regulations require that entering cadets shall be as nearly perfect physically as possible. Under the old rules 63 inches was the required height; now a youth of 17 must be 64 inches tall, or if between 18 and 22 years, 65 inches.

A general order was received from the war department, signed by the president, embodying his views. The order directs the secretary of war to see that all officers of the line who are to come up for examination for promotion to the grade of field officers are actually tested for skill and endurance in riding, this in addition to the physical examination now required by law. The order further states that the president desires an annual and biennial test of the physical condition and skill in horsemanship of all field officers under the personal supervision of the department commanders. The order directly affects the Military academy.

"Nothing Doing."

"Nothing doing!" Is that slang? I thought it was until last night, when I came upon the words in Dickens' "Dombey & Son." In chapter IV., old Sol Gills is explaining to his nephew Walter why the shop must be closed and the business abandoned. "You see, Walter," said he, "in truth this business is merely a habit with me. I am so accustomed to the habit that I could hardly live if I relinquished it; but there's nothing doing, nothing doing." So, you see, the phrase had its pathetic fitness half a century ago, and is not slang at all.—Watson's Weekly Jeffersonian.

PRIEST WAS UNFROCKED

MARTOOGESSIAN, FOR ATTEMPTED ROBBERY, DEGRADED BY WIRE.

ARCHBISHOP FLAYS HIM ALIVE

"This Man is a Stain On Our Ancient Church," He Says—Accused Was Formerly a Stable Boy.

New York, August 5.—Archbishop Houssep Saradjian, the head of the Armenian church in this country, who sent a long cable dispatch to the Catholics at St. Etchmiadzin, reporting the circumstances of the murder of the rich Armenian merchant, of this city, by a political fanatic, and the arrest of the Armenian clergyman, Levont Martoogessian, has received this reply:

"St. Etchmiadzin, Caucasus, Aug. 2. Archbishop Houssep Saradjian, New York: On your demand we have degraded Martoogessian—Mekertich Khirmian."

The archbishop openly accuses Martoogessian of being at the bottom of the whole trouble. The priest is now in the toms, charged with attempted robbery and blackmail in connection with the killing of the Armenian merchant.

This rich man had been notified to pay a large sum to an alleged patriotic society, bent on freeing Armenia from the Turks. The priest was a prominent figure in this society, which, in reality, is believed to have been a hold-up gang of desperate thieves. Many other rich Armenians have been threatened with death if they did not pay big sums to the society.

Martoogessian never had been in favor with a great majority of the American Armenians. He was brought up in Hogue, a small village in Armenia. His father was the servant of a Turk and the boy worked in the stable of his Turkish Agha.

American missionaries took young Martoogessian from his native village to Harpoot City, where he studied in the academy connected with Euphrates college. Martoogessian came to America in 1898 and for two years was pastor of the Providence Armenian Protestant church. Being disliked by his congregation, he went to Worcester, Mass., and became a priest of the Armenian Apostolic church.

The parish priests of the Armenian churches in America are elected every two years. Five years ago he was elected for the New York Armenian church, which held its services in St. Chrysostom church, Thirty-ninth street and Seventh avenue. His people soon became dissatisfied with him and the Hunchakists were left alone with their priest.

Archbishop Saradjian, who is highly respected by the Armenians, when seen by a reporter, said:

"This man is a stain on our reputable, venerable church. I forgive those who have wronged me; but my religious duty is to seek vengeance on this man who has pledged to sacrifice himself for the good of his flock and to follow his ancestors who shed their blood for Christianity. Now he has betrayed his order, he has made religion only a shield to carry on his criminal purposes. Yes, I have asked the Catholics to unfrock him, and no doubt I will be able to tell you soon that he is no more a priest of our church."

The Armenian Apostolic church is considered the first Christian church founded in the world. Christianity was introduced in Armenia at a very early date. The first church historian, Eusebius, who died in 340, found in the library at Edessa a manuscript in the Syrian language containing a very remarkable correspondence between Christ and Abgarus, the Armenian king. These are the words of the letter of Abgarus to Jesus:

"From thy miraculous healings and raising of the dead, I consider that one of two things must be true; either Thou art God himself, descended from heaven to do such deeds, or Thou art the Son of God, because Thou performest such acts. Come, therefore, to me and heal me from a severe sickness."

Christ answered the letter in the following words:

"Abgarus, blessed art thou that thou didst believe in Me without seeing Me. For it is written that those who see Me shall not believe in Me, in order that those who do not see Me might believe and live. In reference to thy request that I should come to thee, I say that I have been among My own people to fulfill all for which I am sent. After having

Joined the Dead at Their Meal.

In the medical press is a story of a man who believed that he was dead and who for that reason refused to take any nourishment. "How can the dead eat and drink?" he asked, when food was pressed upon him. It was obvious that unless something were done to bring him to his senses the delusion must soon become actuality; he would die of starvation. The strangest ruse was tried. Half a dozen attendants, draped in ghostly white, crept silently in single file into the room adjoining his, and, with the door open, sat down where he could see them to a hearty meal. "Here, who are these people?" inquired the patient. "Dead men," answered the doctor. "What!" said the other. "Do dead men eat?" "To be sure they do, as you see for yourself," was the answer. "Well," said the corpse, "if that is so, I'll join them, for I'm starving." The spell was broken, and he sat down and ate like 40 famished men.

EDITOR SHOT TO DEATH

AN ASSASSINATION FOLLOWS GRAFT EXPOSURE BY HELENA WORLD.

SECOND ATTEMPT ON J. N. SCOTT

Police Have No Clue to Assassins—Editor Was Returning Home—Deceased Leaves Wife and Infant Babe.

Helena, Ark., Aug. 5.—J. N. Scott, city editor of the Helena World, was assassinated at an early hour Sunday morning as he was leaving the office to go to his home. Five shots were fired into him and two entered the brain.

No one was in sight at the time and the body was not found for half an hour, when two officers, attracted by the firing, searched for the cause and came upon the dead man lying on the sidewalk.

No arrests have been made, and if the police have any clue they are putting the lid on it.

In the public mind, however, this crime is associated with the recent political upheaval that shook this town until the entire city administration except a few officers was forced to resign, and new officials were elected.

The Helena World led the crusade against the old administration, charging the police department with graft and corruption and demanding an examination of the books.

Chief of Police Clancy, as a result of this exposure, attacked George Adams as the owner of the World on the same day Police Sergeant Tom Duane assaulted Adams, who defended himself well in both encounters. A few days later Clancy attempted to kill himself with a pistol and was dangerously wounded.

Following immediately after this some unknown person fired on Scott late at night as he sat in his office at work, but missed him.

Then Scott and Policeman Ben Caruth had a difficulty. The community has been very much wrought up over this chain of events, and last week passed through an exciting election in which Scott and the World took a leading part.

The dead man came here six months ago from his home in Columbia, Ky. He was 33 years of age and leaves a wife and young baby.

SWALLOWS SNAKE IN WATER

Man Has Unpleasant Experience While Camping.

Lawrenceburg, Ind., Aug. 5.—Shortly after he had taken a drink of water from a spring while camping in Kentucky, Thomas Jeffries, member of a Cincinnati club, became deathly sick, his moans and groans awakening the other members of the party.

His distress soon alarmed his friends and a messenger was dispatched to Petersburg, Ky., and returned with Dr. Ralph Tilley, who, after a careful examination, was unable to diagnose the case from external symptoms.

The doctor finally decided to administer an emetic, which readily disclosed the cause of the sudden illness. Jeffries complained to the doctor, saying he thought he had severed or wrenched some part of his internal organs. Dr. Tilley found a garden snake about five or six inches long and alive. It is believed Jeffries swallowed the snake when he drank at the spring.

Stage Murder in Turkey.

On one point the Turkish censor of the drama is inflexible—there shall be no murder committed on the stage. This is in order to prevent corruption by evil example. Consequently the dramatic effect of many plays is somewhat marred by the manner in which principals destined to be murdered are rushed off the stage, and, after receiving the fatal thrust out of sight of the audience, stagger back from the wings to sing their death songs.

Sharp Says: All he asks of a customer buying a piano is that he show as good horse sense as when buying a hog or a critter for his herd; then pedigree counts, brood tells, and the registry talks. Sharp's pianos have reputation. The World's Exposition Records at Paris, 1900, and St. Louis, 1904, has his pianos on their register, way up with the best premiums and highest honors ever given to a musical instrument.

WERE WANTED FOR SPORT.

Story of the Introduction of Rabbits Into Australia.

Australia wants population, but it wants men and women, not rabbits. The British Australian tells the story of the coming of the rabbit, in response to certain sporting men of Victoria, who wanted something fresh to kill. Manning Thatcher made three attempts to bring rabbits from England. When he succeeded at last the sportsmen had forgotten their want. They were probably shooting the moon. Mr. Thatcher could not dispose of his wares. So on one hot afternoon he and his companions, "left with a considerable burden of unsold wares on their hands, suddenly decided to rid themselves once and for all of the creatures, which had by this time reached the dimensions of white elephants." The rabbits were turned loose. They remembered the injunction to be fruitful and multiply. They did it. And they devastated Australia. Mr. Thatcher was given a
